

Name: _____

Date: _____

*...the beds were neat under their patchwork quilts.
The rays of the setting sun came through the window and filled the house with golden light.*

Patchwork quilts are often created in quilting circles, with many quilters sewing the quilt squares together. Our class is creating our own quilt. Design your quilt square about one of the characters in the story. Consider the character's favorite activities, favorite colors, and symbols that represent that character.

Theme: Quilts

Purpose: character development