Name: _____

Date: _____

1. Suzanne and Luis are quilting. They have 100 squares: half red and half blue. How many squares do they have in each color?

3. A class has 32 students. Each student is making 2 quilt squares. How many different arrays can they create? List them.

2. Joanne is placing 7 quilt squares in each row. She will make 8 rows. How many quilt squares will she have in her quilt? Explain how you got your answer.

Theme: Quilts
Purpose: math story problems, arrays, sequences